MINISTRY AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC INITIATIVES:

The Mantle of Deborah:

The Mantle of Deborah movement, birthed through divine inspiration, has gained tremendous momentum. Under her visionary leadership, the Mantle of Deborah movement has impacted people in nations across Africa, including Nigeria, Kenya, South Africa, Ghana and Botswana, and, most recently, with the just concluded Mantle of Deborah conference in Houston, Texas. The Mantle of Deborah movement is stewarded through three (3) key pillars:

1. Conferences
2. Trainings (seminars, retreats, workshops)
3. Impact Projects

Conferences: Transformative Gatherings Igniting Change

At the heart of the Mantle of Deborah movement are its transformative conferences, strategically designed to transcend spiritual boundaries and address real-world challenges. These gatherings are far from conventional; they bring together an array of thought leaders, industry experts, government officials, and professionals from various sectors. The conferences serve as a platform for robust discussions, collaborative problem-solving, and innovative idea sharing. This deliberate inclusivity ensures that the movement's initiatives are not isolated within a spiritual bubble but are deeply intertwined with the broader socio-economic landscape.

The Mantle of Deborah conferences stand as remarkable events that engage not only the spiritual community but also resonate with the corridors of power. Eminent government officials and industry leaders participate in these conferences, recognizing the movement's potential for driving positive change. This engagement ensures that the impact of Mantle of Deborah's initiatives reaches beyond the audience of the faithful, extending into the realms of policy-making and industry transformation. Collaborative discussions involving government representatives further amplify the movement's influence on societal progress.

Training: Equipping Women for Impact

The training pillar of the Mantle of Deborah movement is a testament to its commitment to equipping women with the skills and knowledge necessary to drive meaningful change. Each training session is meticulously designed to cater to the needs of a diverse audience, encompassing both personal and professional growth. From Governance Leadership to Building Systems of Influence, each session imparts practical tools that resonate across various fields. Through these trainings, Mantle of Deborah empowers women to step into leadership roles, break through glass ceilings, and drive innovation.

The training initiatives orchestrated by Mantle of Deborah do not exist in isolation; they are deeply intertwined with industries and sectors. The movement leverages partnerships with industry bodies, chambers of commerce, and corporate organizations to ensure that the training content remains relevant and impactful. This approach bridges the gap between spiritual teachings and practical implementation. Industry leaders are often engaged as guest trainers, imparting their expertise and insights to participants, ensuring that the training content resonates with the realities of the modern professional landscape.

Isi Igenegba and the Mantle of Deborah movement recognize the pivotal role that government plays in driving societal transformation. As such, key government figures are invited to participate in conferences and training programs. Their involvement not only brings a valuable perspective to discussions but also paves the way for collaborative initiatives that drive real-world change. This collaboration extends beyond mere speeches; it delves into actionable strategies, policy recommendations, and partnerships that span governmental agencies and ministries.

The movement also ensures that industry leaders are active participants in its endeavors. By engaging industry leaders as trainers, panelists, and mentors, Mantle of Deborah brings a dose of practicality and real-world wisdom to its initiatives. These leaders not only inspire participants with their success stories but also provide tangible strategies for career growth and personal development. The result is a dynamic synergy between spiritual empowerment and industry acumen, creating a powerful foundation for participants to drive change in their respective fields.

In partnership with other ministry gifts, including Tomi Arayomi, Dr. Pearl Kupe, Dr. Patricia King, Rev. Julian Kyula, Dr. Sharon Stone, TY Bello, Prophet Edem Julius-Cudjoe, and a host of others, lives have been transformed, businesses have been birthed and grown, and ministries have been ignited, all by the power of God.

Impact Projects:

In 2023, Isi Igenegba launched Deborah's Impact Project Africa (DIPA), an organization dedicated to elevating the lives of women across Nigeria, Ghana, Kenya, South Africa, and beyond.

As the arm and feet of the Mantle of Deborah, DIPA stands at the forefront of infiltrating territories and nations, implementing impactful projects that address the holistic needs of African women. Through her three program areas of livelihood support and economic empowerment, education and career advancement, and psychosocial support, DIPA is committed to bringing sustainable change and uplifting women in every aspect of their lives.

Through DIPA, Isi seeks to create a future where every woman is equipped with the tools and opportunities to thrive, no matter her circumstances.

In Kenya, DIPA has already made significant progress in establishing operational systems and is currently working on setting up an office. With a dedicated workforce of 100 individuals and seven administrative teams, supported by a robust executive council, DIPA is poised for exciting and fulfilling endeavours.

DIPA currently has 10 acres of land in the beautiful coastal region of Malindi. This land is not just a piece of property; it represents a beacon of hope for the local community. It presents a unique opportunity to create a transformative hub, comprising a rescue centre for girls, a specialized vocational training school, and a level-2 outpatient hospital to provide vital maternity care. This project will significantly impact the lives of the people in the Gurabo area, curbing the high maternal mortality rates within the Gurabo area, as the nearest dispensary is about 7 miles away.

People of Influence Network:

As the Lead of People of Influence Network, Isi Igenegba has emerged as a prominent figure in the apostolic and prophetic landscape. She is dedicated to raising a generation of people who are catalysts for change and influencers, delivering sustainable solutions in their respective fields.

The ministry stands as a hub for change, embarking on a mission of empowerment and societal transformation through purpose-driven initiatives.

The Influence Academy is a focal point, offering a holistic learning experience that intertwines biblical wisdom with practical application, fostering personal growth and societal change. Vials of Incense and "This is Jacob" cater to women and men respectively, nurturing communities for collaborative growth, inspired action, and societal impact.

The Children of Influence initiative nurtures the younger generation's in the values of truth and righteousness, teaching them to accept responsibility to effective positive change, while the Prison Ministry extends compassion and healing to incarcerated hearts. Through International Missions, the network's impact reaches beyond borders, igniting revival and fostering lasting transformation worldwide.

Located in Lagos, Nigeria, The Influence Hub stands as the administrative hub of People of Influence Network, coordinating her various activities and initiatives. This hub serves as the nucleus for her administrative functions, offering a home to our dedicated team members who work diligently to breathe life into our mission.

The Influence Hub coordinates and supports our initiatives that span nations and cultures. It houses shared services, pooling resources that enable the ministry to function seamlessly across borders. Our skilled and diverse staff, stationed at the Influence Hub, synergize their efforts to ensure our endeavors fulfill our objectives.

While Nigeria serves as the epicenter of our operations, we've transcended geographical boundaries with our global team and strategic business partnerships. Collaborators from different corners of the world unite their strengths, aligning with our vision to empower individuals from all walks of life.

In this season, Isi Igenegba stands, passionately heralding the call for personal transformation and nation-building. Her profound teachings, coupled with her infectious passion and love for people, inspire individuals to step out of their comfort zones, embrace their God-given purpose, and impact the world around them.

With an undeniable excellence, unwavering faith, and a burning passion for the advancement of God's Kingdom, Isi Igenegba has emerged as a force to reckon with in this season. Her life and work serve as a testimony to the transformative power of God, igniting a hunger and desire in others to fulfil their God-given purpose and impact the world around them.
